

Do you know if you're paying more tax than you should?

Ben Nash could have faced adding an extra $1,000,000 to his tax bill if it wasn't for a quick response from HY Accountants

Are you concerned about your company's next tax bill? Many small businesses are making decisions today that could see their tax bill engulfing them in ways they thought were impossible. If you are not up-to-date on tax situation you could find yourself in trouble.

In this report, we speak with a business owner saved in the nick of time from making decisions that could have left his business with a seven-figure tax bill.

Ben Nash, CEO of Lelox Australia, experienced this firsthand when he changed accounting firms and started working with Michael Joseph at HY Accounting. Within weeks of swapping accountants Michael helped Ben save money on taxes and introduced him to online accounting systems that helped save time and money for his business.

Ben stated that he switched to HY Accounting because he was looking for a more proactive accountant to help him look ahead and improve his business rather than just reacting to what was needed.

With HY Accounting, Ben and his team now have quarterly meetings to discuss past events and what they want to do in the next quarter.

This approach has helped Ben to look ahead and make decisions more quickly, ultimately taking the business further.

According to Ben, one of the significant benefits of working with HY Accounting was implementing a fully integrated system for inventory management, warehouse management, and cloud accounting.

This new approach helps Ben and his team manage the large stock and line items that Lelox Australia sells from every step, from raw materials to being produced and finally selling the product.

With the help of HY Accounting, Ben was able to streamline the whole process, making it easier to manage their accounting requirements and enabling him to make decisions more quickly.

Ben emphasised the importance of having a good accountant for the success of any business.

“Having a proactive accountant can make a significant difference to a business. Not only can they help save money on taxes, but they can also help with financial management and accounting systems,” he said.

With the right accountant, you can save money on taxes, streamline your accounting systems, and ultimately make your business more successful.

Ben said, “HY Accounting has been fantastic for our business, and I’m sure they could help you too.”

Why are more companies turning to this proactive approach?

According to Michael Joseph, Director at HY Accounting, “At HY Accounting, we don’t see ourselves as just an accountant. We see ourselves as partners in your business. We understand how important your business is to you and take it as seriously as we take our own.”

Michael emphasised that at HY Accounting, their focus is on delivering results. “We provide expert strategy and advice to help you achieve your business goals. We aim to build a lasting relationship based on trust by providing you with the care and support you need to succeed.”

Michael also explained that their team had mastered the art of telling the story of a business through its numbers.

“We go beyond crunching numbers to comprehensively understand your business’s financial health. This approach is crucial for making informed decisions to drive your business forward,” said Michael.

According to Michael, HY Accounting’s passion is helping small businesses succeed, “We are committed to being there for you every step of the way, providing the clarity and vision you need to reach your true potential.”

In conclusion, HY Accounting is the right choice if you want a partner who is committed to your success and will go above and beyond to help your business thrive.
